

The Wizard with the Lizard

THE WIZARD WITH THE LIZARD

with added story

A TRIP TO FAIRYLAND

Trudy Dorn
Author and Illustrator

Nourish

© 2020 Trudy Dorn

The author and publisher invite not-for-profit reproduction and sharing of this book for educational or learning purposes.

Published by Nourish Publishing

West Vancouver, BC Canada

ISBN: 978-1-7773617-2-3

NOURISH.press

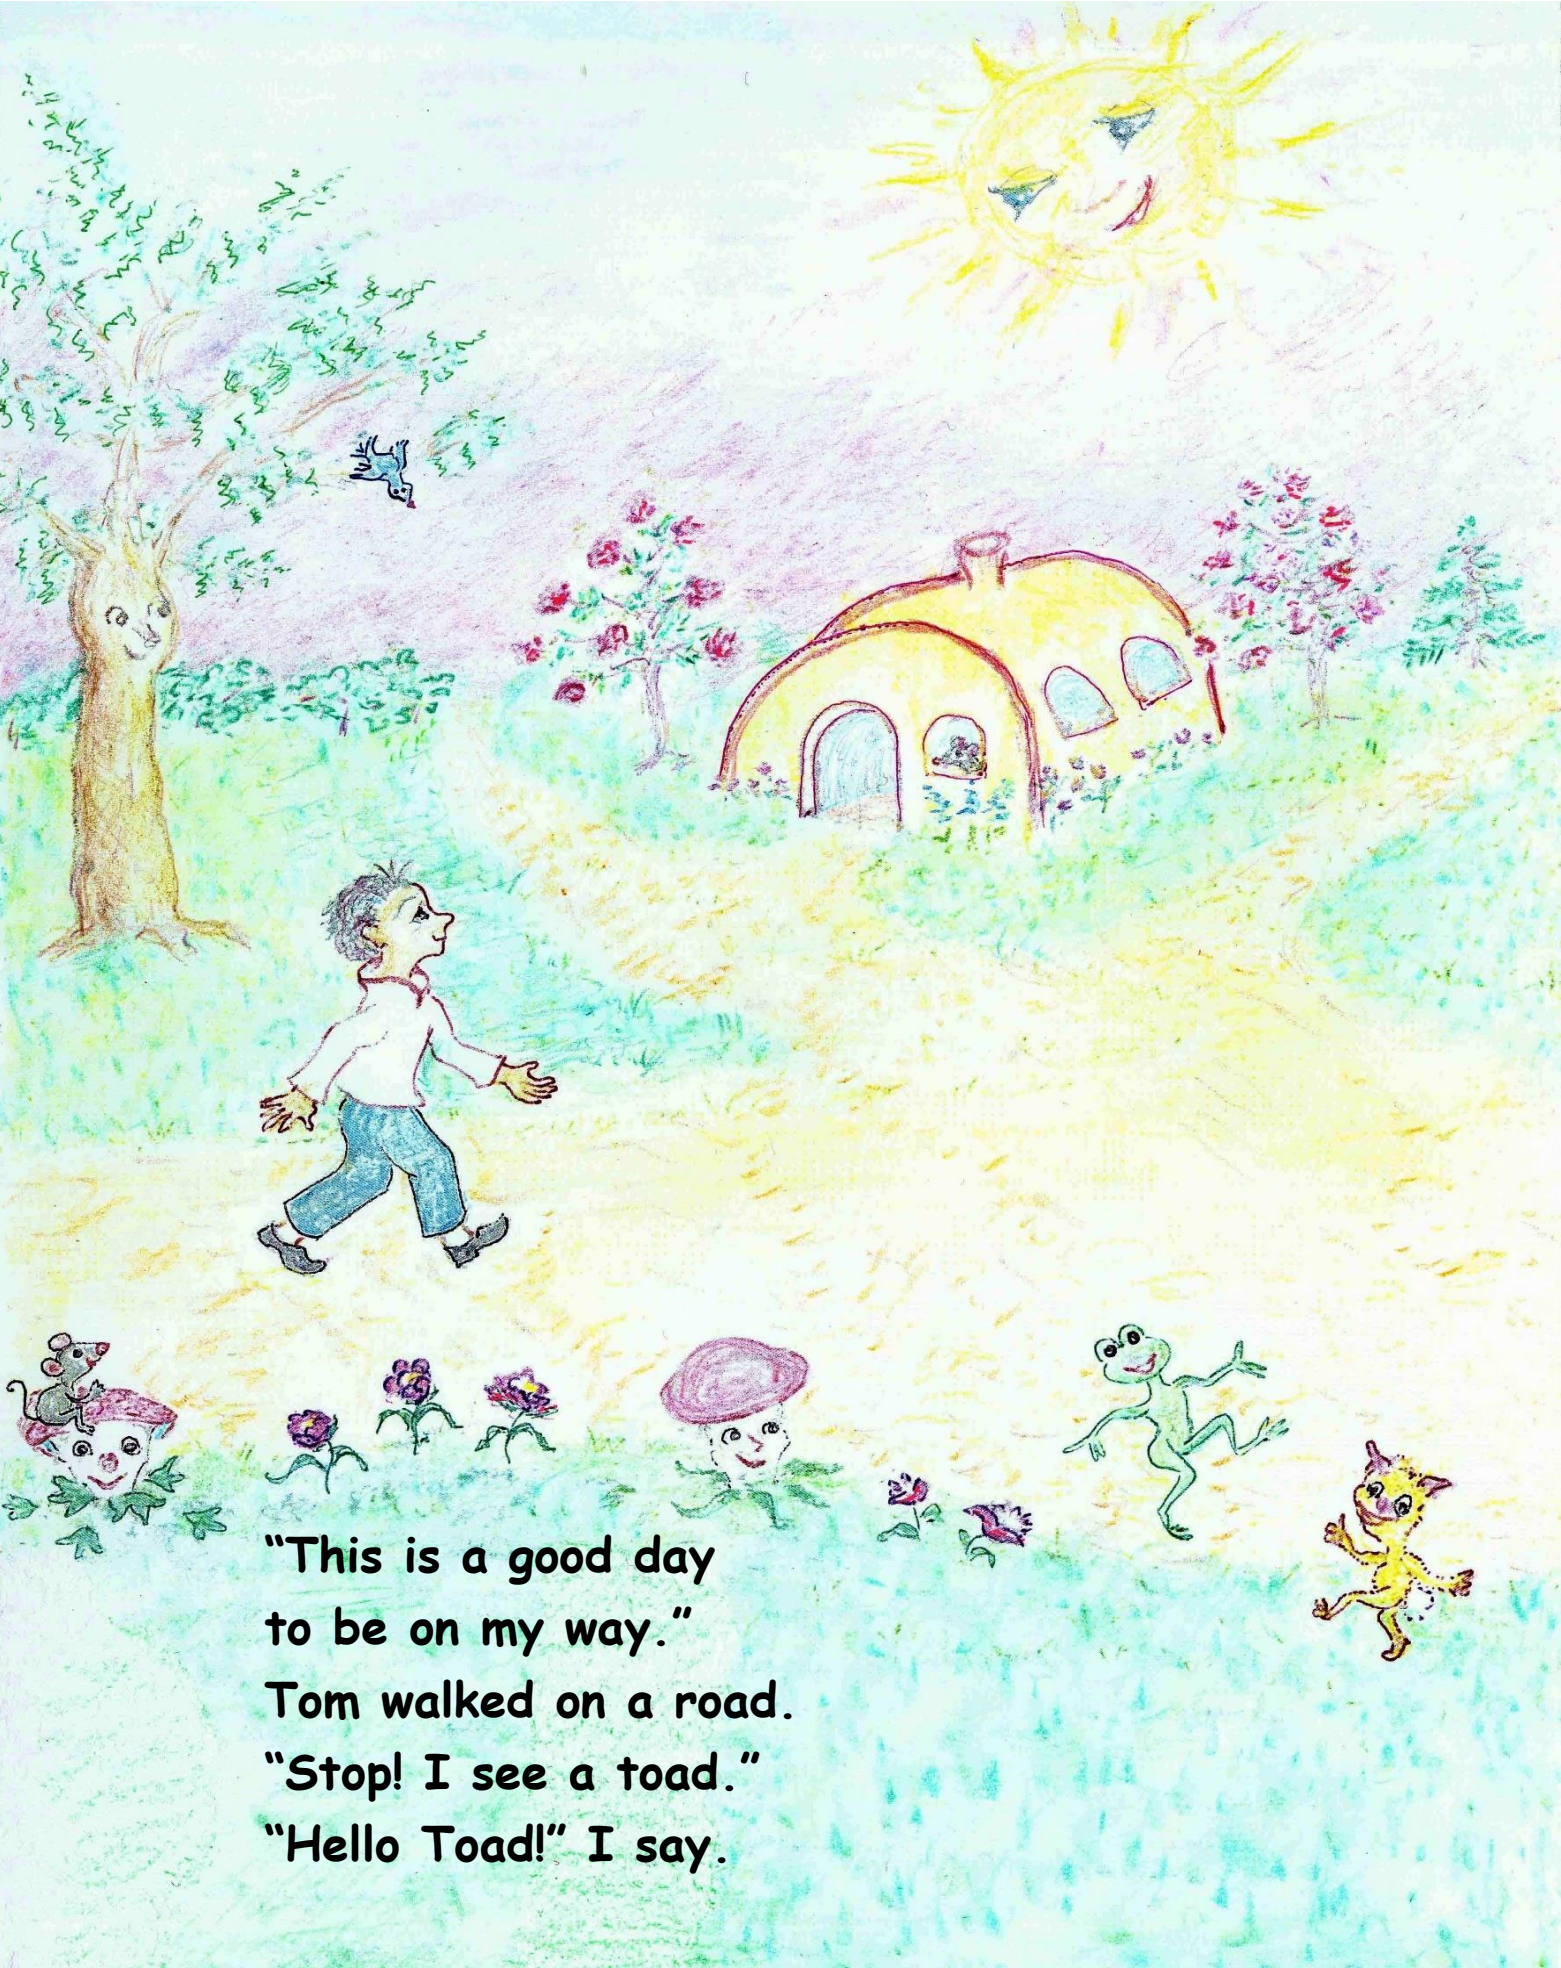

Learn more about the author at:

TrudyDorn.net

Grandma Trudy

With rhythm and rhyme
Trudy's pen danced in time
For you to read a story
Of adventure and glory.

"This is a good day to be on my way."
Tom walked on a road.
"Stop! I see a toad."
"Hello Toad!" I say.

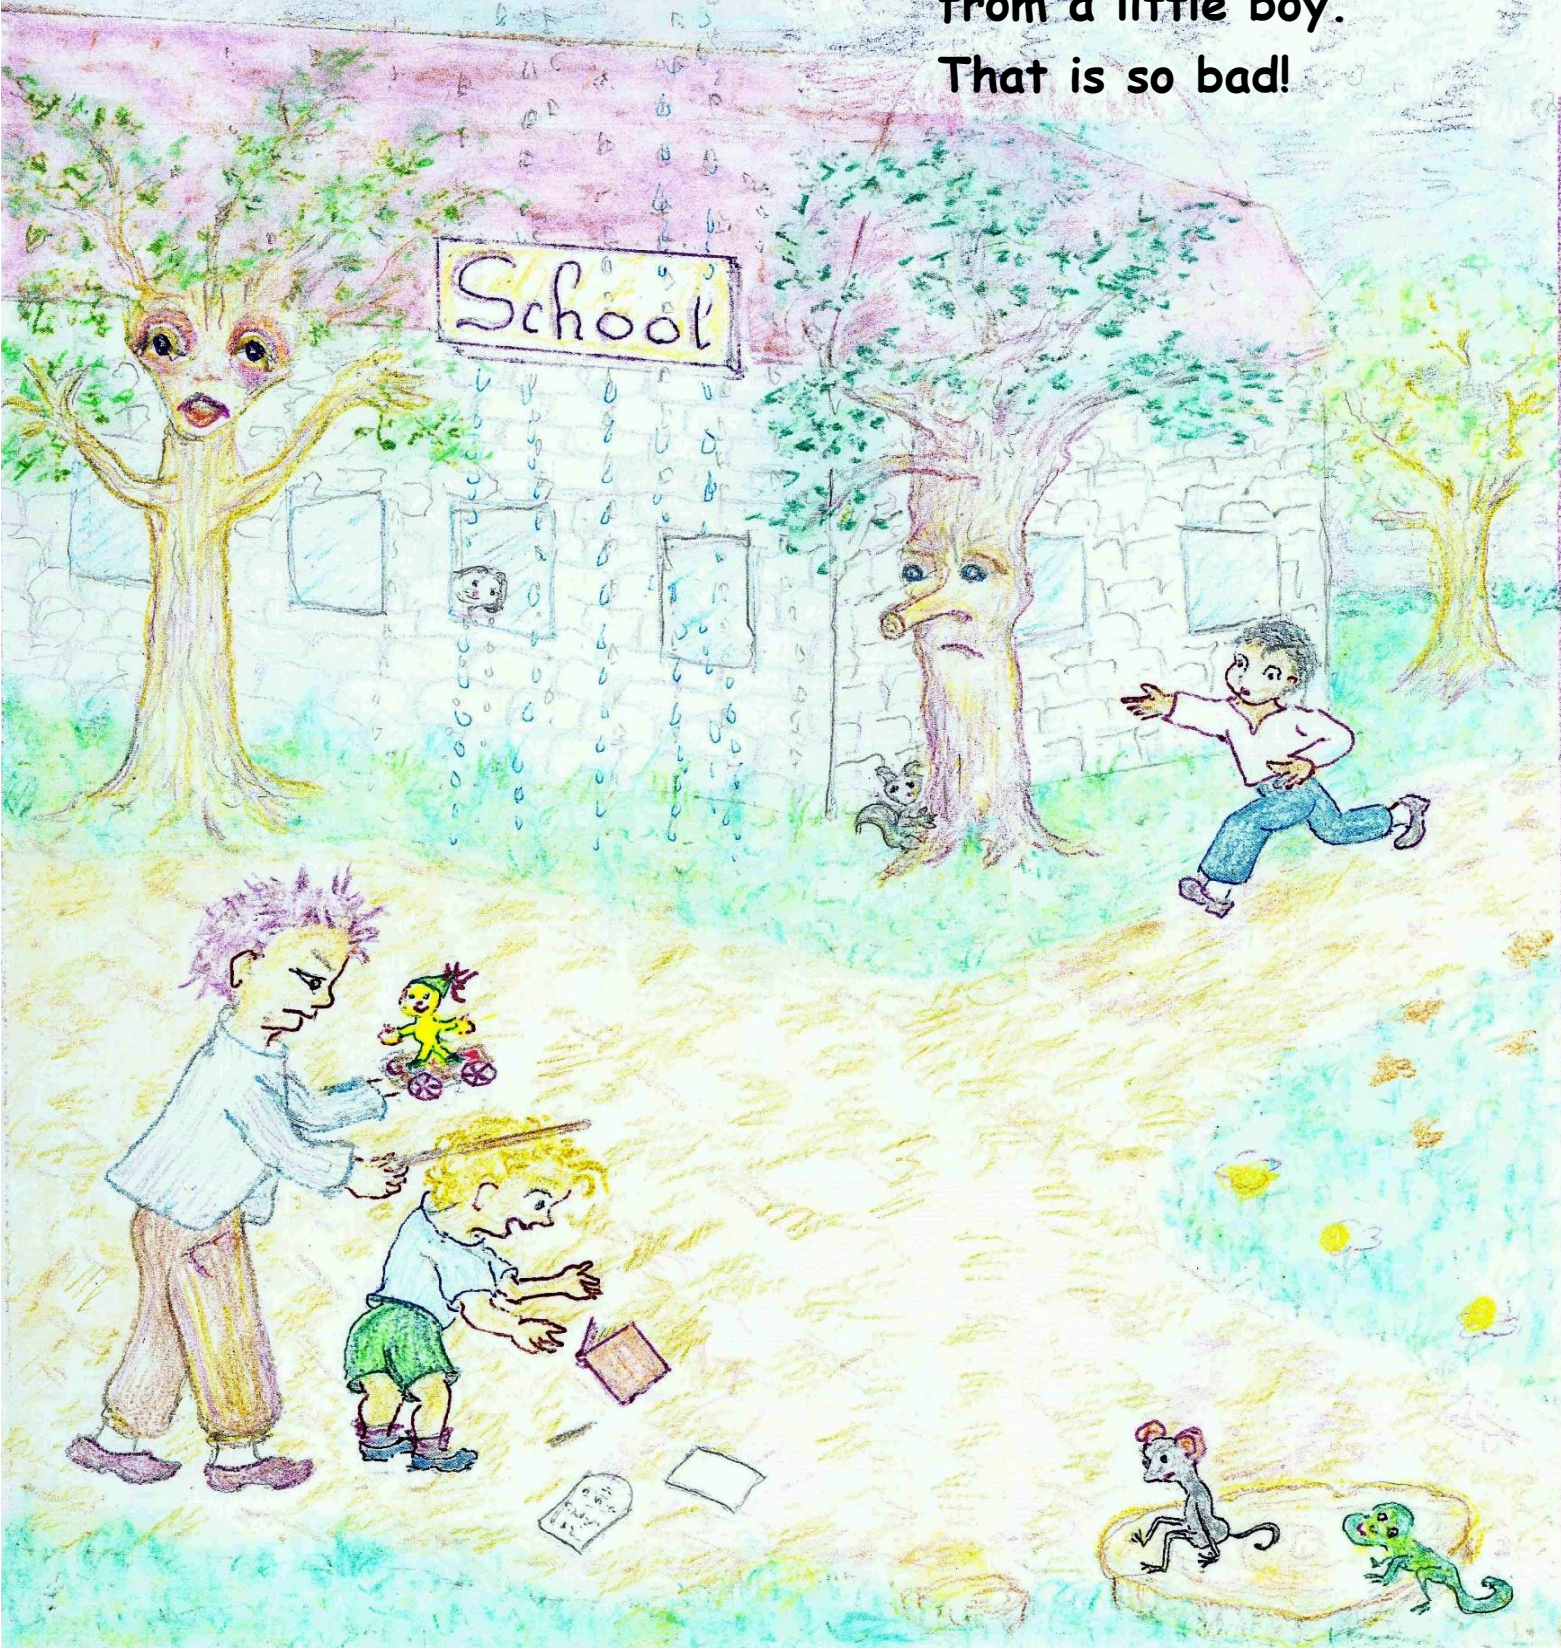

"I want to see a wizard."

So the toad changed into a lizard.

"The wizard lives on the mountain past the fountain.

"I will come too," said the lizard.

Big bully was mad.
He made a child sad.
He took a nice toy
from a little boy.
That is so bad!

Tom helped the boy.
He gave back his toy.
The bully was tall.
The child was small.
Thanks Tom, you bring joy!

What a wonderful sight.
Shall we turn left or right?
They did not stay but went right away and walked without fright.

"He lives far, that wizard," said the lizard.
The wind was blowing so strong and was cold for so long, like a blowing blizzard.

They saw a girl's face high up in space.

She wished there was a way
she did not have to stay in that lonely place.

The lizard saw a hollow.
"Come Tom! Follow!
Take steps to the top,
then come to a stop,
like a brave fellow."

They saw a little mouse step out of her house.
"There is the key to set the girl free in the dragon's mouth!"

Tom heard a scary sound.
Guards were going round and round.
"Let us try to climb high so we cannot be found."

When he opened the door,
the girl could not ask for more.
She looked with such joy at the nice boy.

"For you, a reward is in store."

Tom wanted to see a trace of a wizard's face.

"Look Tom! In the mirror - glass!
As a wizard, 'YOU' will pass.
Here you see a wizard's face."

Be kind to each other as a sister and a brother.
If you act brave,
of magic you are a wave.
You're a wizard like no other.

For another land to explore read some more!

A TRIP TO FAIRYLAND

You can read look a book

E.F.

Welcome

cat

We took a book and look!
So much is in the text.
What comes next?

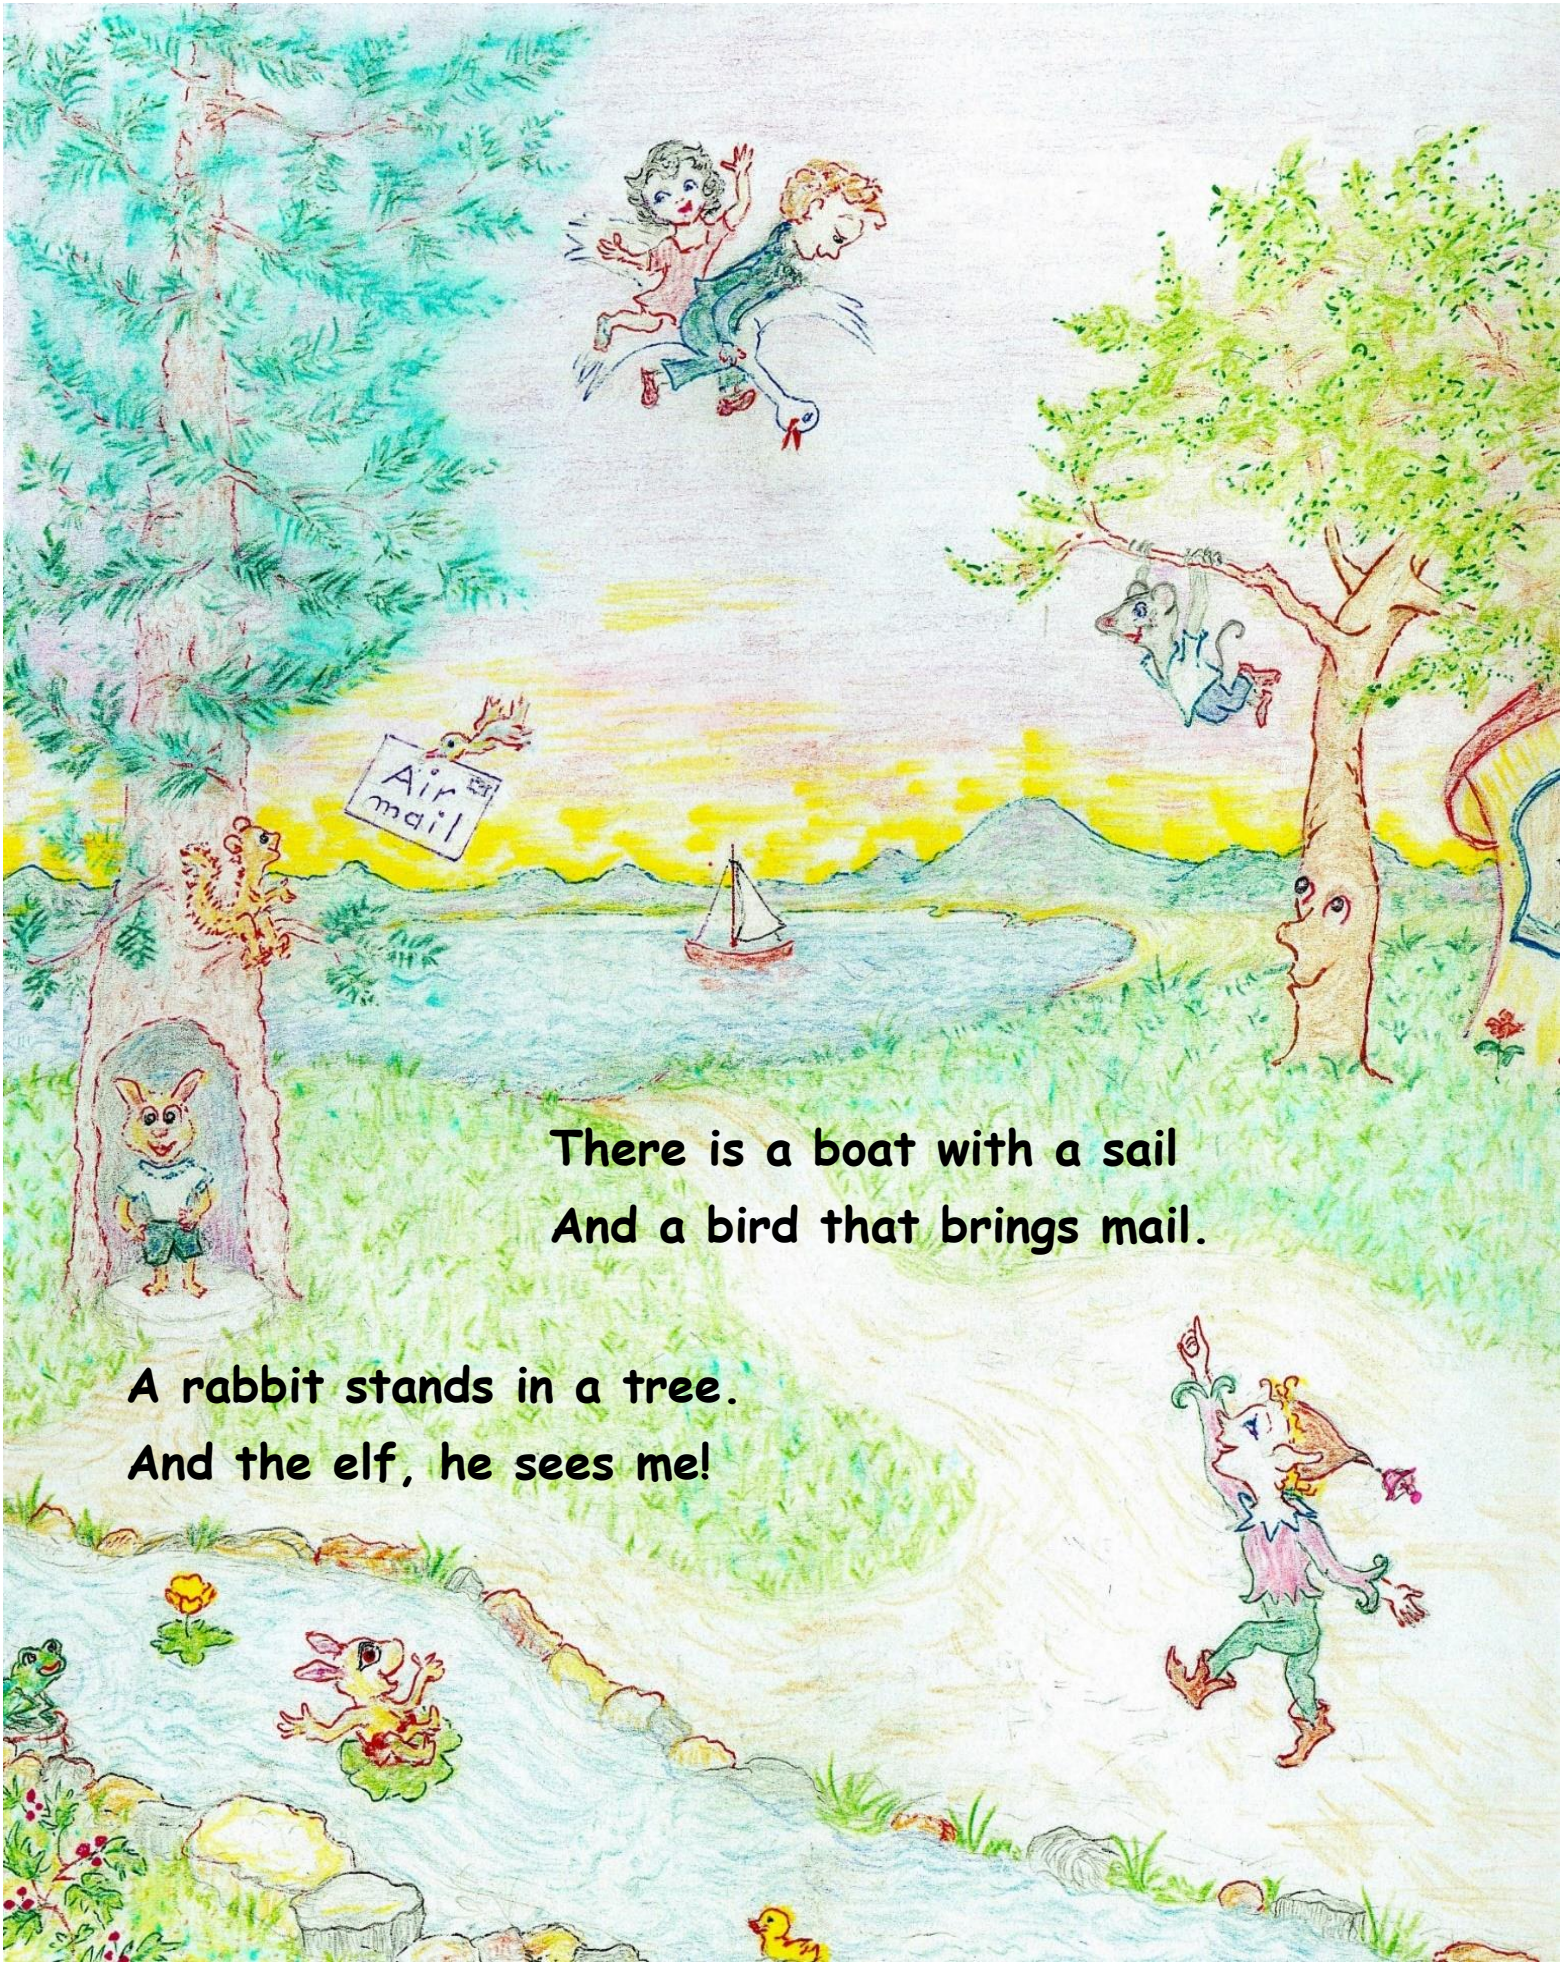

Mother Goose came to say,
"Let's fly away this day.
I will give you a hand to go to Fairyland."

The cat has a bell.
"You can tell,"
said the mouse.
"This is a funny house."

Who do we see under the tree?
If you read, you are free.
You can fly yourself.
"Let us go!" said the elf.

There is a boat with a sail
And a bird that brings mail.

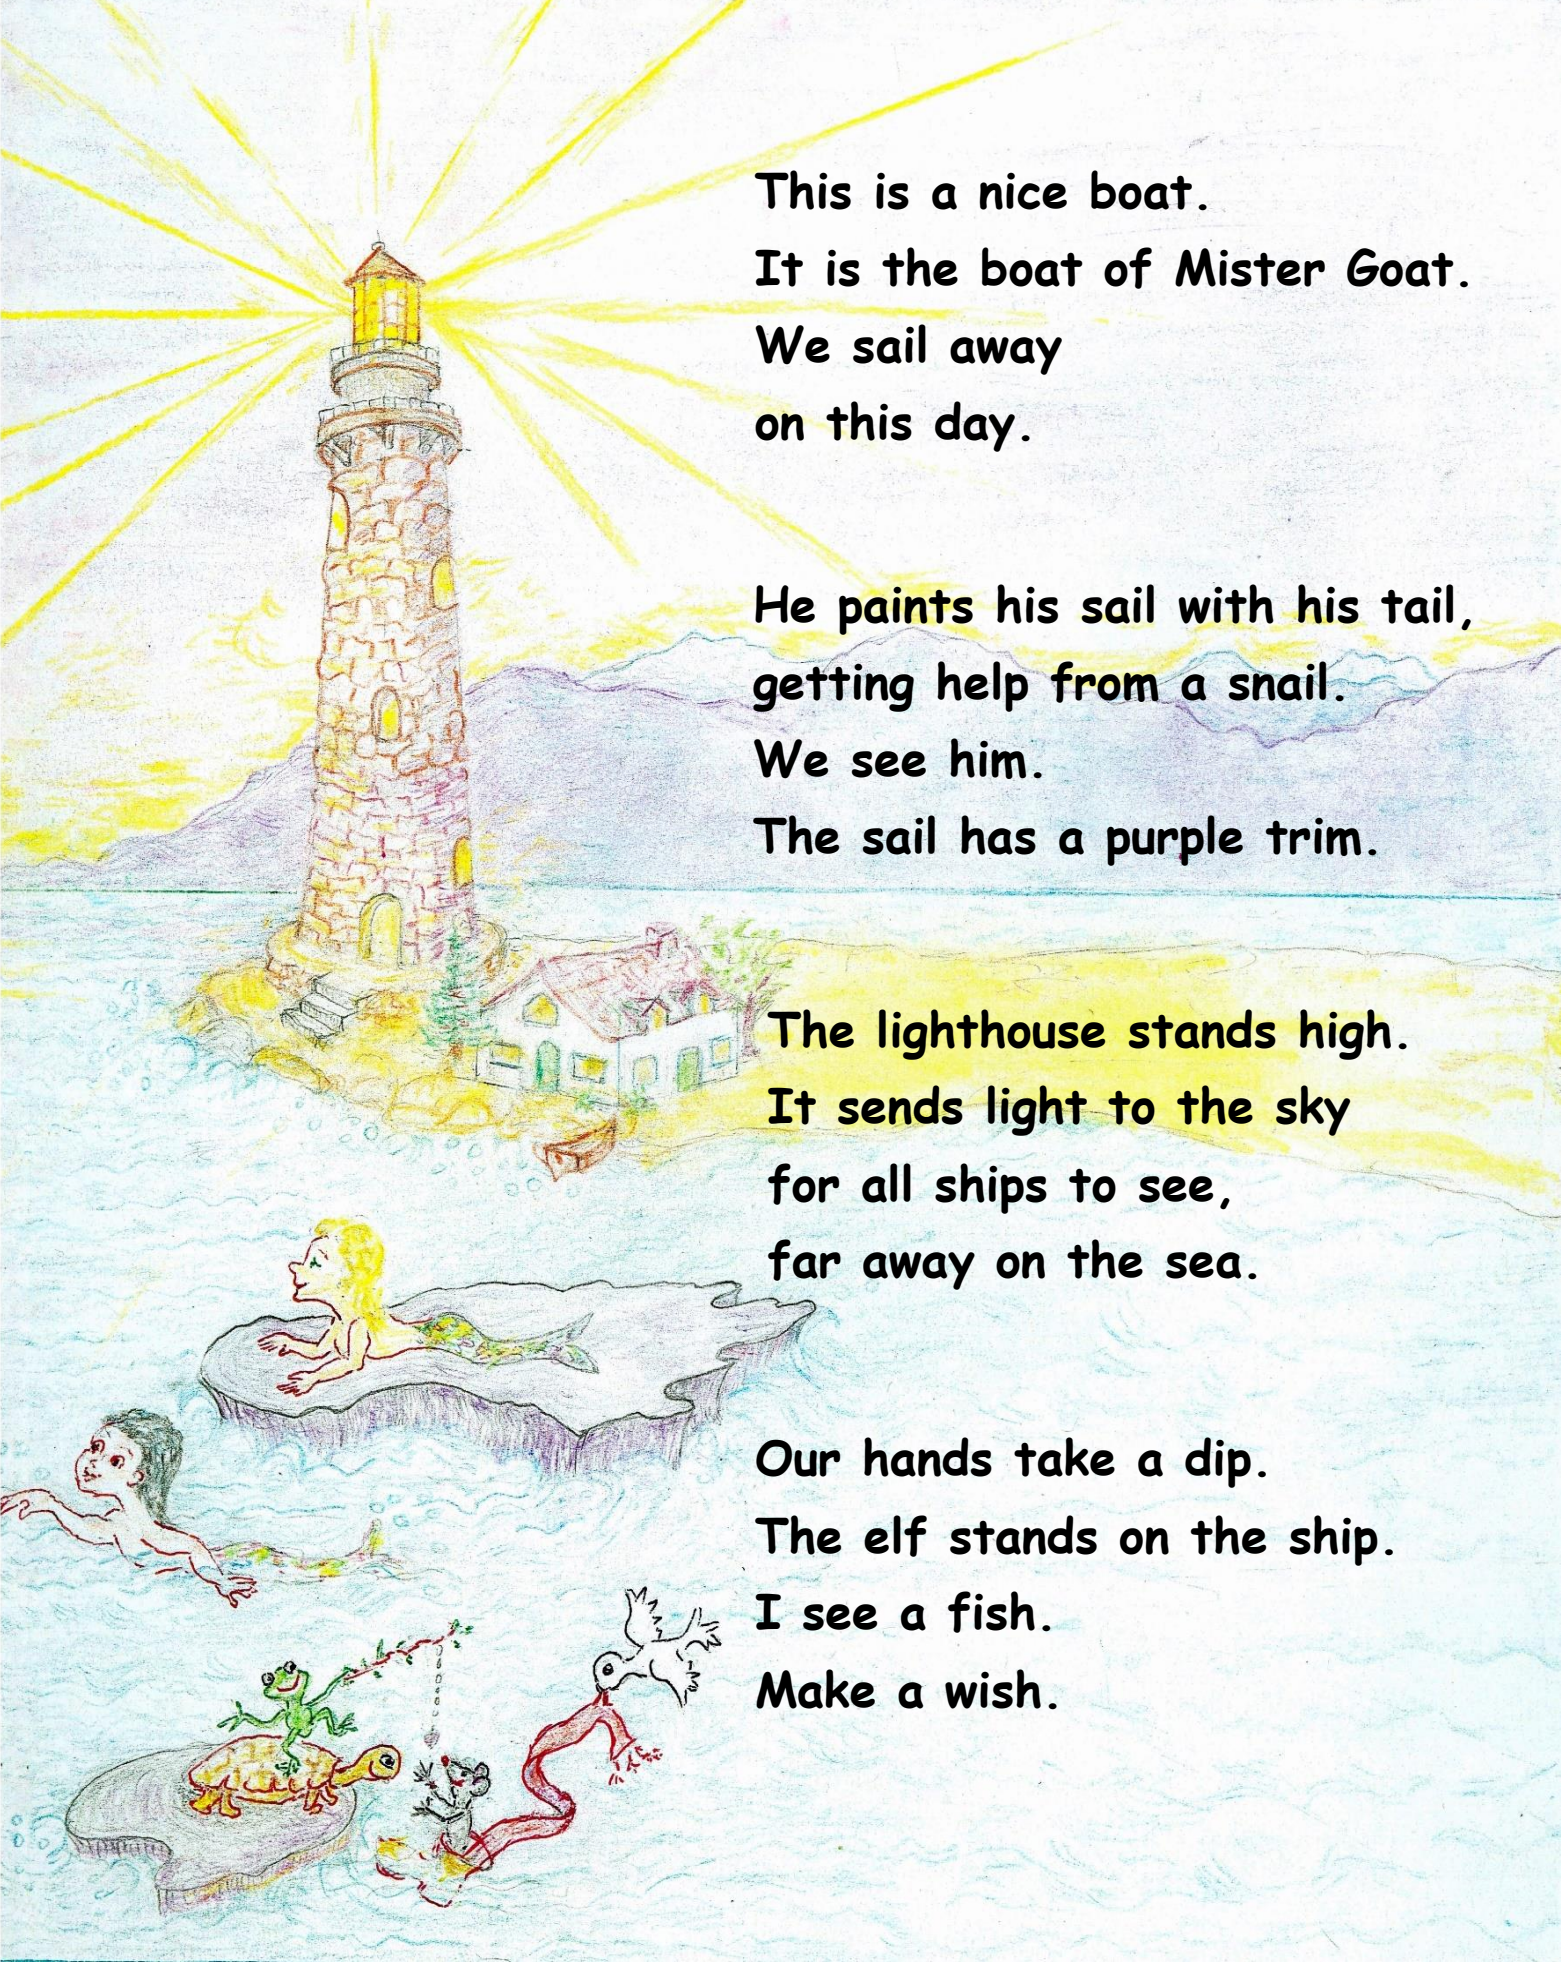

A rabbit stands in a tree.
And the elf, he sees me!

We see something round on the ground.
It is the house of Mousy Mouse!

Mousy swings from a tree.
He likes to feel free.

This is a nice boat.
It is the boat of Mister Goat.
We sail away on this day.

He paints his sail with his tail, getting help from a snail.
We see him.
The sail has a purple trim.

The lighthouse stands high.
It sends light to the sky for all ships to see, far away on the sea.

Our hands take a dip.
The elf stands on the ship.
I see a fish.
Make a wish.

Now we can land.

Mother Goose gives a hand.

I bake a cake for a snake by the lake.

"I wish

I had a fish on a dish,"

said the raccoon with the balloon.

"You will have one soon,"

said the lady on the moon.

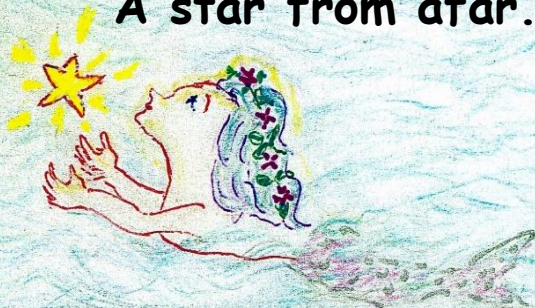

"Do you see my scarf and my boot?"

asked the dwarf with a hoot.

"I like to catch a falling star —

A star from afar."

Welcome to Fairy land

A fairy gets a magic ring.

With this thing, she can sing.

We come to Fairyland to dance hand in hand.

A cat plays a fiddle on a pumpkin, in the middle.

"I found my boot and scarf!"
said the happy dwarf.

This is the end of the book.

But this page shows more. Have a look!

to the Wizard castle

nourish.press

Nourish

TrudyDorn.net